Partner Profile

Market impact

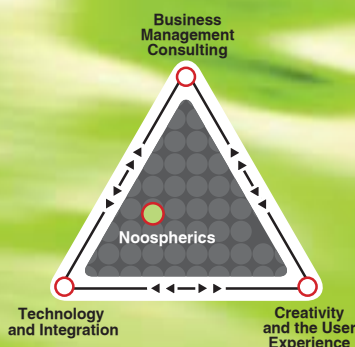

Our aim is to be a valuable extension of our client's internal resources and to provide them with skilled personnel who are key contributors day one. Our project teams have created a new standard for professional services excellence. Smaller teams of senior consultants and developers deliver consistent results, in shorter time frames, at lower costs and faster ROI. The combination of these principles has created an IT Professional Services Company that is superior in character and performance.

Company name Noospherics

URL www.noospherics.com

Mission Noospherics is a leading IT Professional Services company which delivers consulting and development services, mentor based training, and advanced e-business solutions to large IT driven enterprises. The Company is powered by several driving principles. We have created a culture within our firm that fosters an obsession with customer satisfaction. Everything we do is connected directly to solving our client's needs. We employ only experienced personnel with certified technical skills to work with our clients. We guarantee all of our work unconditionally. We maintain a narrow focus on the technologies we recommend and support. We believe that to attain the highest levels of competency, a professional services firm must focus on the best offerings from the most reputable vendors and truly specialize in them. Our clients are a reflection of the quality of our work. They are among the finest corporations in the world. We have observed that the common thread among all of our clients is that their excellence and competitive differentiation is driven by their deployment and utilization of information technology.
